

Zymergen Inc.

Technology & Science Committee Charter

A. Purpose

The purpose of the Technology & Science Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Zymergen Inc. (the “Company”) is to examine management's direction and investment in the Company's research and development and technology initiatives. The Committee will function as a broadly knowledgeable and objective group of scientists and non-scientists to consider and report periodically to the Board on matters relating to the investment in the Company's research and development and technology initiatives. This charter (this “Charter”) sets forth the composition, authority, and responsibilities of the Committee.

B. Membership

The Committee shall be made up of at least two (2) members of the Board, who, in the reasonable judgment of the Board, have scientific research expertise or the ability to oversee such research. Committee members shall be appointed by the Board, based on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Board decides the Committee's exact number and can remove or replace a Committee member at any time with or without cause. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall recommend to the Board, and the Board shall designate, the chairperson of the Committee.

C. Responsibilities

The Committee believes that the Company's policies and procedures should remain flexible in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The following list is intended as a guide, with the understanding that the Committee can supplement it as appropriate.

- Review, evaluate and advise the Board regarding the long-term strategic goals and objectives and the quality and direction of the Company's research and development and technology initiatives.
- Identify and discuss significant emerging science and technology issues and trends.
- Review the pipeline of research and development programs within the Company.
- Review the Company's intellectual property strategy and portfolio.
- Oversee the Company's compliance with that certain National Security Agreement, dated as of December 10, 2019, by and among the Company, the U.S. Government and the other parties thereto, as such agreement may be amended from time to time.

- At least once a year, review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and submit any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- Annually evaluate its performance and report to the Board on the results of the Review.
- Carry out such other duties that may be delegated to it by the Board from time to time.

D. Procedures

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines is appropriate to carry out its responsibilities under this Charter. Meetings may be held in person, telephonically or by other electronic means. The chairperson of the Committee, in consultation with the appropriate members of management, shall determine the frequency and length of the Committee meetings and shall set meeting agendas consistent with this Charter. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. All determinations of the Committee shall be made by a majority of its members present at a meeting duly called or held. Any decision or determination of the Committee reduced to writing and signed by all the members of the Committee (including by means of electronic transmission) shall be fully as effective as if it had been made at a meeting duly called and held.

An agenda, together with materials relating to the subject matter of each meeting, shall be sent to members of the Committee prior to each meeting. Minutes for all meetings of the Committee shall be prepared to document the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities.

E. Access to Information

The Committee has the power to investigate any matter brought to its attention, with full access to all Company books, records, facilities and employees. The Committee has the sole authority to select, retain, oversee and terminate consultants, legal counsel or other advisors (each, a "Consultant") to advise the Committee as it determines necessary or appropriate to carry out its duties, at the expense of the Company, and to approve the terms of any such engagement and the fees of any such Consultants. In addition, the Committee may request any director, officer, employee or Consultant of the Company to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or Consultants to, the Committee. The Committee shall also have the sole authority to determine the appropriate funding for payment of ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

F. Delegation of Authority

The Committee may delegate its authority to a subcommittee comprised of one or more members of the Committee.
